

I am protesting the proposed rule change and the lack of opportunity for public discussion. The decision needs to be delayed until Congress has had time to debate this issue. I believe the proposal is a threat to a free press and democracy.